THE SANITARY BOARD SECRE-TARY SHIP.

THE appointment of Mr. A. H RENNIE, corresponding clerk in the Public Works Department, to be Secretary to the Sanitary Board during the absence, on sick leave, of Mr. Hugh McCallum, has led to considerable discussion of less acrimonious nature throughout the colony, and the general opinion would appear to be that another barefaced job has been perpetrated. However, public opinion in Hongkong, whatever it may be worth, is apt to rush to hasty and unwarranted conclusions, and in this instance there are solid reasons for impartial investigation before arriving at any definite-decision. The position of Secretary to the Sanitary Board is one of considerable importance, requiring special qualifications. Mr. McCallum, who came out to Hongkong M. A. Abelile's br. c. Callistrate, by Cambyse originally as analyst to the Government Civil Hospital, is especially, fitted for the position by his technical training, and is admittedly a very capable man in all branches of Sanitary science. He has done excellent work for the colony, and it is only to be regretted that his leave of absence has become a matter of necessity, not of choice. Seeing that the health of the community is one of the most important factors in our local Government, and that the Secretary of the Sanitary Board is the official entrusted with the important duty of keeping up the sanitation of the city to a safe standard, we do not think it unreasonable that Mr. McCallum's locum lenens was expected to be a specially trained officer. In fact it was all but universally regarded as a people. foregone conclusion that Mr. W. E. CROWZ. the present most able Government Analyst. who has already acted as Secretary of the Board, would again perform the duties between MM. Clemenceau, Derouleds and during Mr. McCallun's absence. About Millevoye, who, however, refuse to issue or accept Mr. Crown's abilities there has never been | challenges in consequence of the affair, " any question, and the only objection to his appointment was raised by the Colonial Surgeon, on the ground that the Assistant and Italian labourers; a hundred of the combs- many characters figured in this little drama but Home Rule Bill prohibiting the Irish legislature Analyst is at present on leave. Mr. Crows thats were wounded.

is in the Colonial Surgeon's department, and doubtless Dr. Ayazs was alike anxious to preserve unimpaired the efficiency of the Government Civil Hospital and to save his subordinate from being laden with more work than he could properly attend to. It was exactly the same in the case of Mr. VIVIA LADDS, the Colonial Veterinary. Surgeon; he already had more work than he could properly carry out, and further, recognising that Mr. Crowe's claims to the position were far superior to his own, he wisely withdrew his candidature—and Mr. A. H. RENNIE received the coveted appointment.

Mr. RENNIE can claim no special fitness for the task he has undertaken, and it is safe to assume that his knowledge of Sanitary science is still in the alphabet stage; but for all that, he may make a thoroughly efficient Secretary to the Sanitary Board. But the question arises, and it is bound to attract public attention, why, if Mr. Crown was unable to carry out the duties of Government Analyst and Secretary to the Sanitary Board at the same time, Mr. RENNIE, who is quite inexperienced in the latter capacity, can still satisfactorily get through this difficult and strange work and also efficiently perform "his legitimate functions as corresponding" clerk to the Director of Public Works If it is urged that Mr. RENNIE can devote extra time daily to the correspondence of THE sentence ti one month's imprisonment the department to which he is attached. It | which was passed on Inspector Starling, of the can also just as reasonably be argued that Mr. Crowx can set aside hours in the still watches of night to work up any arrears in his regular, duties. And it should not be forgotten that Mr. Crown was sent specially out from home many years ago to assume the responsible position he has been some three years in the Service and was originally 'jobbed' into the Surveyor General's department by the late Mr. SAMUEL BROWN. The latter fact does not in any way detract from Mr. RENNIE'S usefulness, and we only quote it to show that the high-toned utterances of the "Official Phalanx" during the Salaries Question debate, claiming special privileges, amount to very little when personal interests have to be served. Our readers will remember that an attempt was made to secure the sinecure appointment of Assistant Harbour Master for this same Mr. Rannie, and the probability is that, but for the adverse criticisms of the Press, he would have been appointed. powering influence in high quarters may be we know not, but that it exists in some shape or form is quite obvious. That is a matter, however, we prefer not to enter into. Whatever may be this gentleman's ability, and we have no reason to doubt that it is not quite up to the Hongkong official standard, it cannot be disputed that his appointment as Secretary of the Sanitary Board is a glaring injustice to older and far more experienced members of the Service. An appointment obtained by extraneous means, and more especially when the nominee has no experience of the work he is called upon to perform, is palpably an official job. We regret to have to record our opinion that this is one. How does Governor Sir WILLIAM ROBINSON reconcile his determination to abolish the British clerical service in favour of Portuguese with this latest 'ringing the changes?'

The fielding of the Australians excited great admiration.

THE CRISIS IN SIAM.

THE BRITISH MINISTER AS MEDIATOR. WARLIKE PREPARATIONS.

(From Stratts Times Special Correspondent.) Bangkok, June 13th. Affairs in Siam are decidedly approaching a crisis, and the next fortnight or three weeks is pretty scarly the limit to which it can endure. The British Minister, Capt, Jones, V.C., is trying hard to arrange for the transfer of the negotiations to Paris, his idea probably being that they can be more amicably conducted there, under the eyes of Europe, so to speak, than by the Governor-General of Cochin-China, surrounded by journals eternally shricking for immediate war, and by officials who certainly have nothing to lose if a campaign is decided on. Whether Capt. Jones will succeed in his endeavours as mediator is, however, by no m-ans certain. The situation as far as France is concerned is singularly like that of 1885, in Tonquin. You will remember that war with China was never formally declared—not a single consul hauled down his tricolour in the Treaty Ports, although the minister did, if my recollection serves me, leave Peking for Shanghal. Yet the struggle The Australians have defeated Oxford with then begun has not yet ended. It is just the same here. Capt. Thoreux is on his way hither, under Slamese escort (though he will be liberated on arrival); Khone is besieged; troops are drilling here hourly, and being sent Mckongwards in small batches; everything is being got ready for the fray-and yet those who are most are being made, for the relief of the Australian proclaimed. Whether it will take place or not is another thing. I have spoken of the preparations for war. gone in for, though it must be remembered that, excepting for a trifling bit of a squabble up at Chiengmal known as the Haw rebellion, she has been at peace for a hundred and twenty years. She has two gunboats—the Makut Rajakumar, built in Hongkong for the Government of the threatening to annex the Carolines; and the Mahachakkri, which is a big ironclad just built at Leith, but really far more of a yacht than a warship. A Danish merchant here has just gone home to get one or two more vessels and a large quantity of war material for the Siamese Government, and meantime all the powder, cartridges, and rifles in the East are being bought up at famine prices The river is also being mined by the naval department, and a look-out is kept across the bar for the hostile fleet. In the river a little French fighting craft. and a slightly bigger English ditto, are anchored opposite their respective legations, waiting for the ball to open. Trade is naturally being considerably affected exports are almost stopped and in some cases property holders are realising their possessions. There is the usual crowd of adventurers, ready for anything, even for leading a Slamese forlorn hope. Speaking of forlorn hopes-although, One person, per day......$ 4.00 personally, I sympathise to some extent with One person, per week army is much akin to Faistaff's famous Married couple (occupying one room) per company. There are perhaps five thousand altogether, many of them pressed men, armed | Married couple (occupying one room) per Israel Simmons, a well-known broker, aged with Manulicher rifles which few of them have and—if it is not treason to say it—very lar from brave. If opposed to Annamite troops they might do something; if put in the field against European soldiers they would simply be what Von Moltke called his men-"cannon-food." They are fairly well officered—three or four Danes, an Italian, and one or two others have QUEEN'S ROAD CENTRAL. charge, under H. R. H. Prince Bhanwangsi, eldest brother but one to the King-but they are of a race so pre-eminently lazy, and amiable, and peace-loving, that it is difficult to conceive, in the absence of any proof to the contrary, that they could be, like Uncle Remus's Brer Fox, "Devils to bite."

FOOCHOW NOTES.

Foothow, June 24th. A drowning accident took place early in the week near the Foreign Settlement. Two young boys who were bathing in the river, called upon a young man, 18 years of age, standing on the bank watching them, mind to join them and give them a good ducking, whereupon the little fellows laughed and challenged him to "come on." Becoming angry at their impudence, he jumped into the river after them, but was not seen again.

Notwithstanding that the tone of the market is characterized as quiet, the settlements for the week are reported as 57,000 1-chests Congou and 10,000 i-chests Southong, which is rather a larger business than was done in the fourth week of last season. Taking quality into consideration prices are unchanged excepting for the lower grades of Congou, which are firmer. The export to Europe naturally shows an excess on account of the earlier opening of the market 1 the figures are 6,763,500 lbs. against 4,595,500 lbs. at the same date last year. The export to Australia will not commence until next month. It is estimated that the supply of first crop Congon will be larger than last season by about 12 per cent. We understand that the Viceroy has lately received from Peking an edict boaring the Imperial seal, calling upon his Excellency to be particular to study the comfort and happiness of the people and to legislate for their welfare so that they may be prosperous. Care is to be taken that the Government granaries are naval and military services are to be kept in a state of Nos. 11 & 12, COOMBE ROYAL-a Large efficiency, and the comfort of the officers and Furnished House at Magazine Gap. men of these Services is to receive special attention. We would hazard the opinion and Staunton Street. that this edict is the outcome of the late position of Foochew as regards its rice supplies, which Road. was no doubt reported to Peking unofficially, as nobody is consured and no allusion is made to the past.—Reho.
